Schools Week Events Drawing to Close Here

Having attracted considerable interest and good attendance at public programs earlier this week, the local observance of Public Schools Week is winding up tonight at the Fern avenue elementary school and tomorrow afternoon at the high school. An exhibit for fathers from 7 to 8 o'clock tonight will open the Fern avenue institution's program. The following hour will be devoted to a music festival, opened by greetings from the Torrance Masonic lodge, sponsor of the observance. There will be community singing led by Miss Metheny, supervisor of music in the southwest district, numbers by the school orchestra and glee club. The public is cordially invited to attend. At the high school an assembly hall program by the Girls League and clubs will start at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Numbers by the seventh grade boys' choir will be followed by a mothers' tea.

Angeleno Seeks Permit to Operate Amusement Game

A permit to operate an "automatic duck pin machine" amusement game modeled on bowling was requested of the city council Tuesday night by Eugene H. Rosenthal of Los Angeles. He said he planned to install the device at 1601-03 Gramercy avenue. The application was referred to the police commission for investigation and report.
